Sligo Jazz Project's annual event is one of Europe's most unique festivals, built around Europe's premier jazz summer school. This year Sligo Jazz Project has 26 tutors and attracts over 120 participants annually. This fabulous bunch of avid music lovers forms our core audience and makes for an atmosphere like no other festival. As a consequence, the empathy that builds throughout this week is quite extraordinary. Participants attend workshops each day, perform together in ensembles, a wonderful facet of this week, when it spills over into our twice daily jam sessions, which feature participants and tutors alike.

But hang on, to use the term "tutors" is a massive understatement. We really need to elucidate about the musicians that spend the week teaching and performing at Sligo Jazz each year. Our 2018 faculty features musicians who have performed with Steely Dan, Paul McCartney, Eric Clapton, Hans Zimmer, Stevie Wonder, Al Jarreau, George Benson, Stevie Winwood, Dhafer Youssef, Joe Lovano, the WDR Big Band, Kurt Elling, Maroon 5, Dirty Loops, Westlife, Annie Lennox, James Morrison, Van Morrison, Mose Allison and Nina Simone. We've had Grammy winners and Golden Globe nominees. These are not mere educators but consummate composers, arrangers and performers spanning a range of idioms. In Sligo you get the opportunity to learn from the masters.

It is these amazing musicians who will perform for you this week, in ever so unpredictable a number of combinations. Catch them jamming with participants and playing concerts, only five of which are pay-in events. With all the free music available, it is easy to avoid the main concerts, but I implore you to get your season ticket for the Hawk's Well Theatre, you will not regret it! It is guaranteed to sound wonderful every night, thanks to our superb resident sound engineer and all-round great guy Ray Duffy, but also features some rich and varied treats such as Liane Carroll leading a range of amazing female performers on our opening night, celtic fusion band The Ollam featuring bass superstar Joe Dart (who is also giving a rare masterclass), two big band nights, Dirty Loops bassist Henrik Linder with Federico Malaman, and our very first composer-in-residence, Brian Byrne, who makes his Sligo debut for his show Goldenhair, inspired by the poems of James Joyce. Our annual SJP All Star bash has become more and more of a sell-out each year, with the sheer breadth and variety of our faculty members' musical abilities on full show. And apart from those main gigs, there is so much great music in the pubs, cafes and hotels, not least the amazing Sunday afternoon marathon concert by all the participants. I would recommend catching every minute that you can grab of this exhilarating week!

The Ollam

WEDNESDAY 25 JULY

DOUBLE BILL

8pm Hawk's Well Theatre

€18/15conc./€9 u18s Booking: 071-9161518/www.hawkswell.com

The Ollam "Where Radiohead meets Planxty"

Tyler Duncan – low whistle, pipes, guitar

John McSherry – low whistle, pipes

Michael Shimmin – drums

Joe Dart – bass

Joe Hettinga – keyboards

Sean O'Meara – guitar

The Ollam were formed in 2012 as a collaboration between Belfast piper John McSherry and seminal Detroit musicians Tyler Duncan, Michael Shimmin, Joe Dart, Theo Katzman and Woody Goss. A resulting album was released on Compass Records. Since then, Katzman, Dart and Goss have found world fame as members of the cult band Vulfpeck while McSherry has released two solo albums and has been touring with Belfast trad band Ulaid who recently released an acclaimed album, A Note Let Go with Duke Special. The powerful rhythm section of bassist Joe Dart and drummer Mike Shimmin is unique, while Tyler Duncan and John McSherry on pipes and low whistles are a melodic and harmonic dream. The collective's inventive musical arrangements are simply outstanding. On their summer 2018 dates in Ireland these four founding members will be joined by Detroit jazz-funk keyboard player Joe Hettinga and Limerick guitarist Sean O'Meara.

Two Bass Hit with Malaman & Linder

Federico Malaman – electric bass

Henrik Linder – electric bass

Nicolas Viccaro – drums

Scott Flanigan – keyboards

On his much anticipated Sligo return, internet bass sensation Federico Malaman is joined this week by the sensational Swede, Dirty Loops bassist Henrik Linder, with French drummer Nicolas Viccaro (Dhafer Youssef, etc) and Irish keyboards phenomenon Scott Flanigan. Don't miss two of the greatest electric bass players on the planet today in a world premiere one-off concert appearance!

Words by James Joyce, music by Brian Byrne,
featuring the SJP Big Band,
with guests that include Lucia Evans
William Byrne, Paul Booth and Ryan Quigley.

Sligo Jazz Project's first Composer-in-residence Brian Byrne is a Golden Globe nominated creator of film scores and a world class jazz pianist. Byrne's album Goldenhair masterfully interweaves James Joyce's poems with a variety of musical styles from traditional to jazz. The specially augmented SJP Big Band's All Star line up is the perfect ensemble for Byrne's creative masterwork.

Shannon Barnett Quartet

Shannon Barnett – trombone

John Goldsby – bass

Matthew Halpin – saxophone

David Lyttle – drums

A meeting of four very like-minded members of our stellar 2018 faculty, led by Australian trombonist Shannon Barnett of the WDR Big Band in Cologne. Shannon was a big hit last year in Sligo, don't miss the chance to hear her with this fabulous all-star combo.

SATURDAY 28 JULY

2pm Tobergal Lane

Sligo Concert Band

Sligo Concert Band was founded in 1990, with a membership of all ages drawn from far and near throughout Sligo, Leitrim, Fermanagh and Donegal. Members are recruited on a regular basis so if you play an instrument and have a fond interest in music, camaraderie, and cráic, do get in touch by emailing: sligoconcertband@gmail.com

3pm Sweetbeat Café

Sue Rynhart and Cathal Roche

One of Ireland's most captivating and unusual contemporary artists, Sue Rynhart has received huge critical acclaim. Her concise, eccentric vignettes of relationships, motherhood and fragility draw on world, traditional Irish and jazz practices, but with a pop sensibility. Sue will be joined by the brilliant Leitrim based composer-performer and improviser Cathal Roche on woodwind and electronics.

SATURDAY 28 JULY

10.30pm Riverside Hotel Festival Club

Plaza Real – the Music of Weather Report

Tom Caraher – sax
Darragh O'Kelly – keys
Barry Donohue – bass
Eamonn Cagney – percussion
Shane O'Donovan – drums

Bassist Barry Donohue leads Plaza Real which is dedicated to the music of 1970-80s jazz-rock fusion band Weather Report. A really exciting project for Barry, as it pays tribute to a very special moment in his life– the moment his father Frank gifted him Heavy Weather, one of Weather Report's most highly regarded albums, featuring Jaco Pastorius on electric bass. That album made a man-bass-player out of an innocent 13-year-old Barry who is joined here by some of the finest musicians from the Dublin scene.

Plus Late Jam Session featuring a host of international talent from Europe's premier jazz summer school
